Paving the Way to Congregation B'nai Tikvah's Future

Be a part of cementing CBT's future by purchasing a brick that will be seen by all who enter our building.

These professionally engraved bricks are available in a variety of sizes and will be a part of a new walkway as we welcome everyone into our community.

There are many reasons to secure your spot on the pathway to our future including:

- Establishing your name and/or your family's name for generations to come
- Celebrating the year you joined B'nai Tikvah
- Recognizing all members of your family

Make a permanent mark in the vibrant history of CBT and be a part of this new foundation ensuring CBT is on solid footing for years to come.

Congregation B'nai Tikvah has a long and storied history in this community

The history of Congregation B'nai Tikvah goes back to the 1940s when a small group of Jewish farmers were interested in forming a Jewish Center.

At the time, High Holiday services and celebrations were held in the homes of some of the farmers. In January of 1942 the Jewish Farmers Community Center of Middlesex County was created and a site was purchased on Old Georges Road near the North Brunswick border. For the first 25 years, there was no rabbi serving the congregation. In 1963, the name was changed to The Jewish Community Center of South Brunswick Shari Shalom. Jump ahead 15 years, in 1978, Congregation B'nai Tikvah was established with the merger of three area congregations, two from South Brunswick, Shari Shalom and Beth Shalom and the Jewish Community Center of North Brunswick Congregation.
