

Page 108

I Will Praise Adonai at All Times

It is truly a blessing to be able to praise God in each moment, but most of us see God only in extraordinary events.

Would that we could see each moment as a new creation, a special time, a manifestation of the holy.

—ABRAHAM ISAAC KOOK
(adapted)

Taste and See How Good Adonai Is

That God can be “tasted” implies that God can be beheld intuitively, confronted and related to. The human can share in God....

The human does not only think of God or comply with God’s will, but feels the touch of God’s hand, the warmth that God’s eyes radiate, so to speak.

—JOSEPH BER
SOLOVEITCHIK
(adapted)