RABBI ELIGBERG LEADS

"Rejoice In Your Festival So That You May Truly Be Happy"

What is the Holy One trying to teach us by these words of Torah? At first reading, this command regarding the festival of Sukkot seems a bit odd. Alone, amongst the Pilgrimage Festivals and the other Holy days listed in the Torah is this instruction about how we are to feel as we celebrate the festival.

What makes Sukkot different from other holy days that we are commanded to be joyous? Our sages of blessed memory emphasized this in the liturgy calling Sukkot z'man simchatenu - "the season of our rejoicing".

I believe that if we look at the observances of Sukkot and the values which underlie them, we will find the answer and a significant lesson. The most obvious of Sukkot observances is the construction of a Sukkah. Building a Sukkah requires us to plan, to gather our materials, to set aside time for putting it up, and to decorate it. A few prayers for nice weather are often included here. Once we have done all this our Sukkah is ready for our family and friends to enjoy.

Why do we leave our comfortable homes, build Sukkot that often test our ability and the laws of physics, and risk the vagaries of weather? We have all been taught that we are reenacting the wandering of our ancestors in the wilderness on their journey from Egypt to the Promised Land. Our Sukkot are a visual echo of the tents that our ancestors dwelt in for forty years. The fragile nature of the Sukkah emphasizes the dependence of the Israelites on the Holy One. We have also been taught that dwelling in the Sukkah allows us to "re-experience" the sense of anticipation of our ancestors as they camped out in their fields during the harvest season. An abundant harvest was truly a time of great joy and an occasion to express their gratitude to God.

There is a third and less well promulgated message. Moving from our homes filled with amenities and gadgets to the Sukkah and its more rustic environment reminds us that we can make do with less. Our abundance of material things is not an ultimate measuring stick of happiness or successful living. On Sukkot we are commanded to set aside the clutter of things and to make room for something more valuable - time. This is why Sukkot became known as the "time of rejoicing".

Just as our ancestors recognized the importance of the harvest back then, the Torah instructs us to recognize the importance of the work that we engage in today. The Torah and our teachers also wanted us to understand the importance of time and committing time to celebrate that which is ultimate in our lives.

The enigmatic verse we began with is really a simple instruction: "Rejoice in your festival". Take the time that really celebrating demands. Make the time to do what is ultimately essential. Create the space in your lives-physically and otherwise to share with people whom you cherish most. Then "you may be truly happy!"

*May you all have a joyous Sukkot,
Rabbi David M. Eligberg*

"Be Our Guest! Be Our Guest!"

One of the beautiful traditions of Sukkot is inviting guests, even ones we do not know, into our Sukkah. Families who build Sukkot take great pride in them and love having company visit. With that in mind, we are reviving a B'nai Tikvah tradition - inviting those families with a Sukkah to sign up to host families in our congregation who do not yet build their own Sukkah for a meal.

As the song says, "Be our Guest!" We hope that those of you who are without a Sukkah this year will allow us to welcome you into our Sukkot. Please call the synagogue office to sign up.

Ushpizin—Old and New

One of the traditions of Sukkot is to invite special guests to our Sukkah. Amongst the guests invited are our ancient ancestors. For centuries, Jews have invited Abraham, Isaac, Jacob, Joseph, Moses, Aaron and David to join them at their holiday table. Today, many of us extend that invitation to include Sarah, Rebecca, Rachel, Leah, Miriam, Deborah and Esther. Each night, as we prepare to eat in our Sukkah we invoke their presence, giving each, in sequence, top billing.

In addition to these ancestral ushpizin, a nice dinner table activity can be to go around the table and have people invite a guest from Jewish history and explain why they would like to meet that person.

OUR HAZZAN'S VOICE

"In Praise of Continuing Education"

One of the highlights for me, of this past summer, was my attendance of the CAJE (The Coalition for the Advancement of Jewish Education) conference at Ohio State University. Attending these special gathering of Jewish educators is energizing infuses me with greater enthusiasm and grand plans. These meetings provide me with a much-appreciated charge.

During my three days at CAJE, I had the opportunity to study with 3 renowned individuals; Rabbi Elliot Dorff, Rabbi Stuart Kelman and with Debbie Friedman. Each of these charismatic teachers approached the same subject matter from their particular strength. Through an array of techniques including text study, music and movement, participants attempted to personalize the prayers that we know so well.

The essence of being Jewish is transmitted through the siddur. Through their collaborative efforts the class left with new perspectives and appreciation for prayer. I cannot place into words the profound affect that their passion for teaching sacred texts, and their love of God and Judaism has had on me. I wish you too, at some time, will have an opportunity to have a similar experience.

Well, maybe you can. Debbie Friedman is coming to us! Thursday November 6, 2003, at 8PM, Debbie Friedman is coming to the State Theatre in New Brunswick. "Referred to as the "Joan Baez of Jewish Song," this singer, songwriter, and guitarist has become a treasured part of the Jewish music landscape. Infused with Judaic expressions that rest on a pure voice, Debbie's songs, such as "And The Youth Shall See Visions" and "Mi Shebeirach (The Healing Prayer)," will touch your soul and warm your heart."

Rabbi Elliot Dorff, of CAJE and the University of Judaism in Los Angeles says "Debbie Friedman's music defines what contemporary expression should be - meaningful, uplifting, deeply traditional and yet new and modern, good for both body and soul. God has blessed us a thousand fold by giving us Debbie Friedman."

Debbie Friedman herself explains "My objective is to involve people in the experience. I try to make prayer user-friendly. Because the music is in a familiar genre, people are able to make the connection between the music and the text. The real power is in the poetry of the liturgy, how moving and stirring it can be, connecting us to our deepest and most precious ideas, hopes, and fears."

We have a rare opportunity to experience, in my judgment, one of the most important voices in Judaism today. More than the queen of Jewish music, Debbie is a modern prophet. She has the unique ability to communicate and inspire us through prayer and her own words. Debbie is down to earth and true gift from above.

The High Holy Days are just about over. We have all resolved to become better people. With renewed dedication, we search for teachers that can inspire greater spirituality. To paraphrase one of Debbie Friedman's songs

"Oh, the water in the well and the healing in the well...the women and the water and the hope that's in well..."

The Well is coming to us; we must take advantage of this opportunity. You can purchase tickets from the State Theater. I will also try to arrange for a special B'nai Tikvah section at the concert.

"People are hungry for it, really hungry. For a sense of spiritual connectedness... Jews of every age are looking for a place to live their Jewish lives and to put their Jewish hearts."

Debbie Friedman

May you have a happy, sweet and fulfilling New Year. May God bless you with good health and inscribe you in the book of life.

*Worship the Lord in gladness;
come before God with joyous song.*

Cantor Bruce Rockman*

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Arie Behar, President

This year my wife Amy and I took our eldest daughter, Maya, up to school for her first year at college. Those of you who have gone through this experience probably remember this day as a day of mixed emotions – both happy and sad. We were very happy for her, ready to be independent and on her own in a fabulous environment. At the same time we were very sad to say good bye even if it's only for the few months until her first break. I can tell you that for me and Amy it was a very emotional day.

Although the number of Jewish students at her college is relatively high, Maya will be exposed to all kinds of new people. But this exposure will include a growing disease on campus these days. An old disease named "Anti-Semitic." She and thousands of other Jewish students will face something that my daughter growing up in central New Jersey has only read about as a faraway problem that will never affect her.

All around us in campuses across the country "Anti-Semitic" is the new in thing. It began with support of a Palestinian State alongside Israel, progressed to a Palestinian State instead of Israel, and has resulted in a demand for the destruction of the Jewish state altogether. The supporters of the Palestinian state will claim, on campuses filled with impressionable young people, that Israel is a brutal state that denies the Palestinians basic human rights. They will say that they don't have any issue with the Jewish faith, it's only the Jewish state they have a problem with. They will say that the Israeli army is a brutal regime that kills and tortures innocent Palestinian people.

All of these false accusations camouflage the underlying message: the destruction of the State of Israel. Unfortunately young people on college campuses are not familiar with the facts and begin to believe these misrepresentations. And therefore a growing number of students across the country are taking sides with the wrong camp.

The anti-Israel group understands that the next generation of voters and leaders can be found on campus today. They are making an extra effort to get their message across. They find a group of intelligent and ideological kids and they pour a tremendous amount of resources into recruiting these kids with great success. Sadly, some of the leaders of these organizations are Jewish students, motivated by a twisted ideology.

In order to stop these trends we must be active and committed, and know the facts. We must start teaching our children the truth at an early age, so they are equipped to combat the spread of lies. We, the Jewish communities, have to support the people in Israel and our college kids by participating in every organized rally or community event, and demonstrate, with our families, our commitment to Israel.

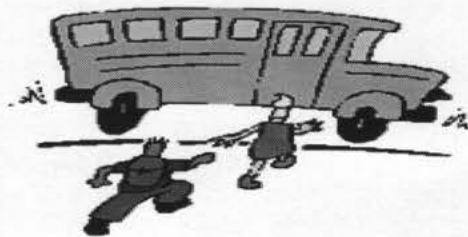

I urge you to come and participate in an Israel solidarity rally – the Israel Inspires Weekend, starting

Thursday October 9, 2003 at Rutgers and continuing over the weekend. For more information go to <http://www.israelinspires.org>.

As the New Year approaches, I would like to wish each and every one of you a very Happy and Healthy New Year.

*Arie Behar
President*

RELIGIOUS SCHOOL REPORTS

Seven Strategies For A Successful School Year

Ann Kanarek, Director

Jews, as a people, are an extension of the Jewish family just as the synagogue is an extension of the Jewish home. Therefore, as a religious school, we seek to include families in the educational process along with their children. A strong and cohesive partnership between the school and the home must be nurtured to foster successful growth in learning and to promote Jewish identity. There are many opportunities available for family involvement:

1. Take an interest in the materials and books that your children bring home. Use the outlines you received to discuss the work of the class. Review booklets and parent pages sent home from school. Encourage and support your child in his/her homework. Showing interest will increase motivation.
2. Keep abreast of the activities and programs that our school offers. Read our regular reminders and be alert to the notices sent during the year. Respond promptly to RSVP's and permission slips. Your support will aid to smooth running and efficiency of our school.
3. Bring your child to synagogue. Attendance at worship services will facilitate learning and mastery of prayers.
4. Involve yourself in classroom activities. Your participation will send the message that your child's Jewish education is important.
5. Volunteer! Serve on the religious education committee. Help with our special programs, make phone calls, provide refreshments, assist with class Shabbat dinners, promote tzedakah projects or substitute teach. There is much to do and help is always needed. Be a strong visible presence or work behind the scenes, but show your child that you support the school.
6. Perform mitzvot and serve as a role model to your child. When children see parents taking an active role in the community as Jewish doers, it creates an image that children will strive to emulate. Watch for monthly memos from our Social Action Committee that will detail opportunities for families to perform mitzvot at home and offer assistance in school projects.
7. Study! There are many learning opportunities at the synagogue available for adults. Also, join our PACT (Parent and Child Together) programs. When a child is proud of his/her parents accomplishing educational goals, then a model has been set forth which encourages the child to achieve.

Children learn by example, emulating the models that we create. Our actions are the best teachers of all. What is important to us will be important to our children. Accept our challenge to become partners with us to instill Jewish pride and the curiosity to learn, as we transmit to our children the warmth and beauty of our heritage. I expect you will find the experience thrilling, exhilarating, and satisfying. I look forward to seeing everyone on many occasions throughout the year.

SIMCHAT TORAH FESTIVITIES

Simchat Torah, our Festival of Rejoicing with the Torah, begins on Friday evening, October 17. Services will begin at 6:15pm and will include a special welcome ceremony for our kindergarten students and those just beginning their formal Jewish education.

Our Fall festivities will conclude on Sunday, October 19, 10:00am-1:00pm, with traditional Hakafot, dancing and singing with the Torah. Rabbi and Cantor will "unroll" the Torah and families will help in retelling of the weekly parashiot by sharing their particular "sedra scene." A complimentary brunch will be included. This is a special family program for all our religious school parents and children and we look forward to seeing everyone there!!

With very best wishes from my family to yours, for a healthy, happy and sweet New Year!

L'Shana Tova Tikateyvu,

Ann Kanarek

NURSERY SCHOOL NEWS

Fran Pearlson, Director

The 2003-2004 school year is underway and the children are all having fun, learning and playing and making friends. Our teachers are happy to be back with our returning students, and delighted to meet and greet our new students. The children's happy smiles and excitement in everything they do are what the JCC of North and South Brunswick Nursery School is all about!

We warmly welcome back our superb staff of teachers and administrative assistants: Carol Winter, Phyllis Edley, Ina Horn, Amy Smith, Stacey Cadoff, Brenda Sherman, Maria Lesko, Joy Orlan, Amy Cohen, music specialist Gina Giuffre, Lisa Seidman, and new administrative assistant Melanie Ruddy. We are delighted to welcome our new Pre-K teacher, Barbara Schwartz, who brings much enthusiasm and an exciting teaching style to our school.

NURSERY SCHOOL FUNDRAISERS

From August 21 to August 28 many USYer's in the Hagalil region went to Encampment in Starlight, PA at B'nai B'rith Perlman Camp. The theme of the week was "Are you there God? It's Me." Judah Loewenstein and Dana Kathrins did an excellent job as co-chairs. The USY Defense Force was a great theme for Maccabiah. Although the navy team won, everyone had a great time. After Shabbat Saturday night, we all watched the movie Pay It Forward which was a great way to cuddle with our friends and be warm.

USY's opening event, the Murder Mystery Dinner, was a great success. "Who Killed God?" was a great topic because it taught us a lot about the Torah. It was a great way to include Religious Education into our first USY event. Inviting East Windsor to join us was a great idea on our Rel/Ed VP's part, Elyse Ross.

Our next event, Pizza in the Hut, will help us learn about Sukkot. This annual event has become better and better over the years and this year it will be our best yet.

We hope this year to win Chapter of the Year. We will do this by excellent programming and members. We already have excellent programs for the year. Now, all we need are members. So, if you have any friends who want to join, tell them to fill out an application, and come to our events.

B'NAI TIKVAH COMMUNITY

Congregation B'nai Tikvah has the privilege of being hosts to this year's Hagalil Region Mid-Winter Convention. The Convention will be held in our synagogue over the weekend of February 6-8th.

What does this mean to us? The synagogue will be "filled" with the voices of approximately 300 high school students from throughout New Jersey who will join together in song, prayer, learning and having fun! These young adults represent the future and, it is quite the experience, to see the enthusiasm they have for being together to study, pray and socialize.

To insure that they are able to have this experience, we will be reaching out to you, the congregation to support us. What will we need? The first thing we will need is housing for the USYers. We utilize home hospitality for them. They come with their own sleeping bags, pillows etc so all that you will need to do, as a host, is provide them a space to sleep (floors work well) and transportation to and from the synagogue over the weekend. Please say yes when a committee member calls and asks you to help house 2 or more of our youth.

We will also need people to help with various meals throughout the weekend, making sure the USYers are well fed. Please consider being able to volunteer to help at one of the dinners, lunches or chaperoning the dance.

We like to provide the USYers with a "welcome bag". If anyone works in an industry that can provide product samples, scratch pads, etc and would be able to secure us approximately 350 units, it would be appreciated.

Finally, we hope that you will join our youth as they lead us in services over the weekend on both Friday night and Saturday morning.

The Youth Committee will be reaching out to you, our congregation, to insure that this very special weekend is the success that it is destined to be. If you have questions, or would like to volunteer even before you are called, please contact either myself or any of the Youth Committee members.

*Regards,
Adrienne Ross*

TWO NEW WAYS TO RAISE FUNDS FOR CBT

Congregation B'nai Tikvah earns cash for your old, but running, cars and trucks. You get a receipt for your donation!

To donate your car/truck or to find out more about this fundraiser, call:

Danny Greenberg 732-297-3780
Mark Sherman 732-940-1110

B'nai Tikvah earns cash for your empty ink-jet cartridges. Bring your empty cartridges to the synagogue office.

For more information call:

Synagogue Office 732-297-0696

Sorry: Laser Cartridges NOT accepted. If it's bigger than the size of your palm, it's NOT an inkjet!

SPECIAL THANKS...

To Rabbi Eligberg, Cantor Rockman, Larry Cohen, Jeff Schwartz and the Religious Activities Committee, Marty Abschutz, Hadas and the office staff, and the myriad people who did a phenomenal job making sure that Rosh Hashanah and Yom Kippur came off without a hitch. Thanks for sweating the details!

*Dan Greenberg
VP, Administration*

FIFTY PLUS CLUB

The Fifty plus group will meet on Tuesday, October 28, at 1 p.m. in the Social Hall of the Synagogue. Our program will be a dramatic presentation by Renee Goodwin as "Eleanor Roosevelt: Woman of Note", sponsored by the New Jersey Council for the Humanities. Join us to learn about our future programs and day trips. All members and friends are invited. Congregation B'nai Tikvah membership is not required. Refreshments will be served.

MAKELAH

The Makelah, under the direction of Marty Angstreich, spent the summer and part of the autumn rehearsing for the High Holy Day services. We have been rehearsing at 6:30 PM every Tuesday. Of course, to make the High Holy days selections truly meaningful, we added a few additional rehearsals on Thursdays. Marty is a very talented director with a great sense of humor. He has made our rehearsals a lot of fun.

Have you enjoyed listening to Avinu Malkenu? Why not become a part of the chorus? If you love to sing, please take the challenge and join us! You do not need to be able to read music or Hebrew. However, Marty does plan to offer the Makelah a few lessons on reading musical notation.

Marty has invited all sopranos, altos, tenors and basses to join the B'nai Tikvah Makelah. If you are not sure what part you sing, Marty will be delighted to help you find out. Please call Marty Angstreich at 732-422-8781, Cantor Rockman at 732-297-0696 or Cheryl Asnis at 732-297-5379 for further information.

WANTED!

16 (IN)EXPERIENCED BOWLERS

Our first games last month began with 11 full teams (more than last year), with several new players of varying ages and degrees of skill. We have room at Brunswick Zone Lanes this year for as many as 4 additional, 4 person, teams.

Even if you've never bowled before, you're welcome to join us. If you are an experienced bowler, our friendly league gives you an excellent opportunity to try new approaches, techniques and equipment without risk to your normal league average. If you're new to the game, this is fun way to learn.

The next games are scheduled for October 4th at 8pm. Call ahead, sign-up online, or just show up. Contact Gary Bergman, 732-246-7285 - Bowling@Bnaitikvah.org

COMING IN NOVEMBER

"Acting For The Stage" with Mandy Linden. Theater games - Improvisation - Short scene work. Participation encouraged. Spectators welcome. Tickets $8.00 ($10 at the door). Refreshments served.

Watch for "It's a Cabaret" coming in December.

CBT'S KOL TIKVAH YOUTH CHORUS TO HOLD OPEN AUDITIONS

Now that Summer is over, and the New Year is upon us, it's time for Kol Tikvah, Congregation B'nai Tikvah's kids and teens chorus, to begin rehearsing for the coming year's performances.

We'll be holding open auditions sometime in mid-October. Potential new members should send an email to Marty.Angstreich@BnaiTikvah.org including your name, age (with birthdate), parent/guardian's name(s), email address and home phone number, and we'll be sure to put you on the e-mail list for the audition schedule.

In the past rehearsals have been held on Tuesday evenings, from 6:45pm until 8:00pm, with additional rehearsals added as we near a performance. In addition to the Chanukah Party and Shabbat Shira celebrations, we are hoping to add holiday nursing home performance(s) and a June end-of-year concert.

Additionally, as we seek to find ways to fund our growing music programs at B'nai Tikvah, a special project is being planned that will be very exciting for all our musical groups including Kol Tikvah, Makelah, and Sons of Tikvah.

Please be sure to send your e-mail early so you can get in on all the fun!

L'shana Tovah

Marty Angstreich, Musical Director

THE FUNDRAISING COMMITTEE KICKS IT UP A NOTCH

The fundraising committee will be kicking into high gear in the upcoming weeks with three big projects slated for the year:

Schmooze Cruise (in the CBT Ballroom): The annual CBT "party of the year" will be held March 13, 2004. Mark the date on your calendar now. Planning for this event will begin in the upcoming weeks. Anyone who's a party planner (or just likes to party) should help!

Ad Journal: Our 2nd annual Ad Journal will be distributed at the Schmooze Cruise. We need ad solicitors, coordinators, etc.

Raffle: CBT will have a large cash raffle drawing held at the Schmooze Cruise. We'll need lots of help soliciting!

Please contact Gary Warner at 732-422-9292 or Mark Sherman at 732-940-1110 if you are interested in helping in any or all of these events.

AN UPCOMING B'NAI MITZVAH RACES FOR THE CURE

Dear Congregants,

For one of my mitzvah projects, my Mom and I will be running in The Susan Koman "Race for the Cure" which helps to raise money for breast cancer research, and we are asking for donations to help. Our goal is to collect a minimum of $1,000. The research is really important to us because a few of our family members and our friends are either battling breast cancer or are survivors.

With your help, by making a small donation, hopefully a cure for breast cancer will be found. You may call me for information at 732-613-0613, or you can donate online by going to my personal website at: <http://www.kintera.org/faf/r.asp?t=4&i=26200&u=26200-9241820>. Thank you in advance for your help.

*Sincerely,
Anna Rothfus*

A: THE REVAMPED SCRIP PROGRAM

That would be the answer if Alex Trebek were reading the $1000 answer under the topic News from Congregation B'nai Tikvah. The correct response, in the form of a question, would be: "What is new and exciting this year in Synagogue fundraising?" Too bad this was not a daily double!

Yes, new developments occurred over the summer for scrip sales. First, the Scrip Committee is now under the able leadership of Bobby Bergman (with assistance from her partner, The CBT Webguy). Rachel Shaneson remains a vital and integral part of the Committee.

Second, you may have noticed that there has been the introduction of the new and improved method of ordering scrip via the internet. Just click onto Congregation B'nai Tikvah's website (www.bnaitikvah.org) for the forms. Don't forget that you may still purchase scrip every Sunday morning during religious school hours, too.

Third, you may now purchase both supermarket AND retail scrip from the Committee. Supermarket scrip is available from your favorites like A&P, Acme, Shop Rite, Stop & Shop and Wild Oats and the scrip Committee STILL delivers to your door.

MEN'S CLUB WILL RAISE THE ROOF!

Date: Sunday, October 5
Time: 9:30 Breakfast (bagels, lox, etc.)

BIKUR CHOLIM COMMITTEE NOW FORMING

The synagogue is now forming a Bikur Cholim (visiting the sick) Committee. Members will receive training on the Jewish way to show concern for people who are ill. If you are interested in visiting or calling congregants who need healing, please contact Miriam at the synagogue office, 732-297-0696, x 3005.

BEING A "NEW" MEMBER HAS ITS ADVANTAGES

All new members are automatically subscribed to the CBT Newsletter via e-mail. If you became a B'nai Tikvah member before we put the item "e-mail address" on the membership form, and are not receiving the synagogue e-mails, you are not receiving time-sensitive information from the synagogue office. Don't have e-mail? Please keep in touch with some one who does, who can notify you of important events. Don't be disadvantaged. Send a message today to webmaster@bnaitikvah.org asking to be placed on the list.

SISTERHOOD GIFT SHOP IS ALWAYS OPEN

We are available for all your holiday needs: apple & honey plates, shofrot, hostess gifts and more. Just give us a call or come in and see our latest acquisitions!

Don't forget that we will take special orders for Bar and Bat Mitzvah kippot, tallit, tallis bags, tefillin, and help with any other special occasion or ritual shopping you'd like to do. Feel free to call:

SOCIAL ACTION ... SOCIAL ACTION ... SOCIAL ACTION ... SOCIAL ACTION

FOOD OF THE MONTH

Social Action is beginning a new program this year. We will be collecting each month, from September through March, specific food items for our local food banks and shelters. When you drop your child off for religious school, nursery school or attend a meeting or a program, please bring one of the designated food items of the month to the synagogue office. Your support is greatly appreciated. Please do not bring any food item on Shabbat.

October: Cranberry sauce, stuffing mix, turkey gravy or anything else That will help with a Thanksgiving meal

November: Peanut butter and Jelly

December: Macaroni and cheese, canned tuna or canned spaghetti

THE MIZVAH CRIB HAS ARRIVED

The Mitzvah Crib, located in the synagogue lobby, is a place for you to drop off new baby items which will be donated to needy families in the area. This is an ongoing program.

Suggested items: diapers, wipes, baby soap, powder, lotion, bottles, spill-proof cups, bibs, books, toys and clothes -- anything new that a baby can use.

MAZON CARDS

THE JEWISH RESPONSE TO HUNGER

An all-occasion Mazon card will be available for purchase in the synagogue office and at the gift shop. Cards are $5.00 each. All proceeds will go to Mazon, a national, nonprofit agency, which allocates donations from the Jewish community to non profit organizations, providing food, help and hope to hungry people of all faiths and backgrounds.

BUCKINGHAM PLACE

This year, Social Action is trying to develop a relationship with Buckingham Place, an assisted living facility. Jewish residents will be attending our services on a monthly basis. We are in the process of obtaining yartzheit dates and arranging transportation for residents who want to say kaddish for a loved one. We are also in the developing stage of providing a program for residents during the winter at Buckingham Place and plan to invite them to various synagogue sponsored activities during the year. For the New Year, we will be delivering a Sisterhood flower centerpiece wishing them a healthy and happy new year. Anyone interested in getting involved in this worthwhile effort, please contact Janice Baer-732-940-0268 or e-mail: Janice.Baer@bnaitikvah.org

Next Meeting: Thursday, October 30 at 8:00 at Jodi Eligberg's home
16 Gwyn Avenue, North Brunswick
ALL ARE WELCOME!

SCHOOL SUPPLY DRIVE

Thanks to all those who supported the school supply drive this past Spring. Because of your generosity, we provided 32 book bags filled with school supplies to the Redshaw School in New Brunswick and The Amandla Crossing Transitional Housing Program. The volunteer coordinator of the Amandla House wrote, "We are in the process of distributing the "filled- with everything-a-student-could-need-or-want" school bags you prepared for our children...and what a wonderful and helpful contribution you've made. She further stated that, "All of us, administration and staff, seemed to be as pleased and grateful as the kids and their moms. It is a joy to know that we can rely on you to consider our requests for assistance, and usually answering them swiftly and generously."

HELP A NEEDY FAMILY FOR THE HOLIDAYS

Who are these families? These families are all in need. They are referred by various sources including Jewish Family Services, local welfare directors, school social workers and senior centers.

How does this program work? Each family will fill out a wish list of their needs. The wish lists typically include items like towels, sheets, blankets, clothing, shoes, coats and children's toys.

How can you help?

1. Become a family coordinator for one family's wish list. This might involve getting your family, friends, co-workers, and merchants to donate the needed items to fulfill the family's wish list.
2. Volunteer to obtain one or more of the items on a family's wish list.
3. Donate money that will be specifically used to purchase items on a family's wish list. Checks should be made payable to Congregation B'nai Tikvah Holiday Program.

To participate in this worthwhile program download the form from www.bnaitikvah.org or contact Social Action Committee Chair Janice Baer at either 732-940-0268 or Janice.Baer@bnaitikvah.org.

SISTERHOOD

Date: Sunday, October 26, 2003

Time: 10:00am, short meeting & program

Come Scrapbook with Sisterhood!

Do you have boxes of photos just sitting and waiting for you to get around to them? Are your photos and memories safe? Our own Jodi Marcou will teach you how to quickly turn your precious photos and memorabilia into photo-safe keepsake albums. These albums also make wonderful gifts to honor a cherished friend or family member. Please bring 5 or 6 recent photos to make a page to take home.

Also this month, the Social Action committee is asking for donations of boxed mashed potatoes or canned sweet potatoes to help needy families. Please bring some with you when you join us.

November 6: Mark your calendar now!! Paid up membership dinner. Pay your dues now so you don't miss this exciting event. Good food and entertainment. Send your check to Fern Katronetsky at 10 Donald Ave. Kendall Park, NJ 08824. Don't miss this event!!

Let's put the FUN into Sisterhood's fundraisers this year. Come out and participate. We are still looking for volunteers to work on the Children's Fashion Show, scheduled for February 8.

Pressed4Time (Linda Feinstein, 732-329-3185). Do you lead a hectic life, find it difficult to run to the cleaners or shoe repair? Well let P4T help you. P4T is a mobile cleaner who will pick up and deliver your dry cleaning or shoe repair to your home or office. Sisterhood earns 10%.

Hometown Savings Book (Linda Feinstein, 732-329-3185). Savings from national and local businesses for the low cost of $18.

Needlework (Ann Rosenzweig, 732-249-9141). Purchase $10 or more in needlework from Ann and she will donate 20% to Sisterhood.

Suse Rosenstock Flower Fund (Gail Dillman, 732-821-7392). To fund this project which will ensure that there will always be flowers on the bima of our synagogue during the holidays Sisterhood is selling beautiful "flower cards". Each card costs $4, a pack of 5 for $18. The inside of the card is blank.

DID YOU KNOW?

Did you know that the roof of a sukkah must be made out of vegetation, something that grows, to make us sensitive to those things created by G-d rather than by man.

The covering must not be so thick that we cannot look through the roof and see the heavens above, which are the true source of our protection.
