PESACH Starts Evening of 3/29

The name "Pesach" comes from the Hebrew root Pei-Samekh-Cheit, meaning to pass through, to pass over, to exempt or to spare. The holiday is also referred to as Chag he-Aviv, (the Spring Festival), Chag ha-Matzot, (the Festival of Matzahs), and Z'man Cheiruteinu, (the Time of Our Freedom), and the joy of that time is evident in the music of the season. There are many joyous songs sung during the seder. You can learn many of them from Cantor Rockman on March 17, see page 5 for details.

Women of the Wall

Following up on the continuing story of the Women of the Wall. Any of you who may have written to Michael Oren in protest of the treatment of Anat Hoffman, Nofrat Frankel and the Women of the Wall received the following form response letter from Embassy of Israel

Thank you for writing to the Embassy of Israel.

The State of Israel affirms its commitment to upholding its democratic and pluralistic values and to ensuring freedom of religion on a daily basis. In this spirit, Israel's High Court of Justice ruled on April 6, 2003, that space adjacent to the Western Wall should be specifically designated for the conduct of religious services that do not conform to long-established practice at the area known as the Kotel. In light of this ruling, the site or Robinson's Arch, which adjoins the Western Wall and is along

On February 7, our Hei class joined our Sunday morning minyan for the Annual Men's Club World Wide Wrap. Rabbi Wolkoff and I had the opportunity to introduce the mitzvah of Tifillin to our eager and curious students. the same retaining wall of the Temple Mount above, was designated to host egalitarian services that encourage both men and women to wear tallit and read from the Torah.

While this arrangement does not fully satisfy each and every person's demands, the profound sensitivity of the matter has made compromise an imperative. The current situation provides all Jews with an outlet for religious expression next to Judaism's most sacred site.

It is vitally important to Israel that the status of the Western Wall be preserved as an iconic symbol of the Jewish people. As in any law-abiding country, violating the stipulations of the Court's ruling constitutes an offense that is subject to law enforcement. In full accordance with the instruction of the High Court, we will continue to guarantee that all Jews are afforded the opportunity to assemble and pray in its vicinity.

*Sincerely,
Office of Public Affairs
Embassy of Israel*

... on the first day of the Hebrew month of Adar, the Woman of the Wall and their supporters congregated at the entrance to the Women's Section, far from the actual Wall. The women prayed and sung quietly and modestly.

Police guarded the women.

At around 7:15 am, a man in Ultra-Orthodox garb stood up on a chair and yelled from the Men's Section over the dividing wall- demanding that the woman stop praying and remove their tallitot (prayer shawls), which some of them had donned. This gentleman came and went a number of times and then at around 7:25 am, another man came dressed in tallit and t'fillin and started lecturing the women, yelling at them and telling them:

They will not succeed in what they are doing.

They will not undermine the tradition of Moses from Sinai and that they should cease and desist all activity at the Wall.

This man went on for about six minutes, and then about 50 more Ultra-Orthodox men gathered at the corner area of the Men's Section that borders the area in the Women's Section where the WOW were praying. The men started yelling:

Gevalt, Amalek, Nazis, Go back to America, You caused the Holocaust, You are worse than Goyim

The main speaker was handed a megaphone to continue his vicious diatribe against all those who came to daven and or show support to the WOW.

OUR HAZZAN'S VOICE Cantor Bruce Rockman

A Benefit Concert and Collection for the People of Haiti.

Daniel Spivak, who will soon celebrate becoming a Bar Mitzvah would like to help the people of Haiti now. Each of our B'nai Mitzvah students participates in a variety of "Mitzvah Projects". Some of these projects are very personal and reflect the events in their lives. Daniel and his family would like to assist the people of Haiti. Daniel has been deeply moved by the images of devastation and would like to help these suffering people in such desperate need. Although all of Daniel's plans are yet to be set, he intends to recruit many of his friends to help publicize and collect needed goods for Haiti. Though unconfirmed, one such possibility is the collection of medical supplies.

In conjunction with Daniel's efforts, Sunday evening March 28 at 7:00 PM The Sons of Tikvah Band will host & perform a benefit concert for the People of Haiti. The concert is FREE, but we are not free to ignore the devastation and needs of our fellow citizens. Approximately 230,000 people died in the earthquake and around a million were left homeless.

Through the Jewish Federation of Greater Middlesex County over $13,000 has been raised for Haitian relief. 100% of all funds will support the relief efforts. Our local schools have mobilized as well as our religious school children and Kadimah chapter, who helped pack care packages.

The North Brunswick based Nrithyanjali Institute of Dance, Inc. an Indian group, held a hastily organized "Evening of Music and Dance" at North Brunswick Township High School to raise money for the earthquake relief effort. Admission was free, but attendees were asked to make donations, which will be given to aid organizations in Haiti. This group proudly raised $15,000.

In Haiti the rainy season approaches, and then the hurricane season, the situation for hundreds of thousands of people is still precarious and their needs urgent.

The humanitarian response to the disaster has been a logistical nightmare. Major infrastructure, government and international aid teams already in Haiti had been devastated.

When destruction struck Haiti, Israel quickly dispatched its professional military relief team including evacuation and recovery experts aided by dogs from the Oketz ("Sting") canine unit and an extensive medical delegation that quickly deployed its fully operational field hospital in the soccer field of Port-au-Prince, complete with surgeons and a technical division that set up a communications and Internet network for coordination and video-conferencing with medical colleagues back home. The international press is also using the IDF network, as most other communications are down.

The Haitian people have begun tackling the hard work of recovery, looking for opportunities to earn money, to meet their people's basic needs. Meanwhile, here in the United States, support for Haiti continues to flow, including many generous donations to organizations such as Oxfam and other charitable organizations. Haiti was already the poorest country in our part of the world before the earthquake. All of the numbers related to this disaster over overwhelming.

Our concert and collection on March 28, will take place on the night before Passover. All who are hungry come and eat. These are the words we read from the Passover Hagadah. We are, as if we ourselves are freed slaves from Egypt. Today we are thankfully to be comfortable and able to help others. Please do what you can and please join us at B'nai Tikvah, as we effort to do our small part.

Worship the Lord in gladness; come before God with joyous song.

Cantor Bruce Rockman

Enrich your Jewish mind and spirit with the ritual committee's Pesach speaker series.

Kosher for Pesach with Rabbi Wolkoff Wednesday, March 3rd ~ 7:45 PM

Can I eat ice cream or dried fruit on Pesach? How about legumes? What is a legume anyway? What's an 18 minute Matzah? Rabbi Wolkoff will clarify the laws vs. customs, what's OK and what's not, and most importantly, why.

We are excited to present:

300 Ways to Enhance Your Seder! MEET THE AUTHORS

MURRAY SPIEGEL & RICKEY STEIN Passover talk and book signing Wednesday March 10, 2010 ~ 7:45 PM

Find out how to create an unforgettable Seder!

Make your Seder more entertaining and educational! Murray and Rickey share fun parodies, quizzes and games, and explain how this amazing book connects youngsters to their family's genealogy, current events, and Jewish cultures throughout the world. In the Foreword, Theodore Bikel raves with "great delight" for this book. See Hieroglyphics from the time of the Exodus, hear languages spoken by just 6 people, enjoy how Shakespeare (or Donald Duck . . . or a Klingon!) would say the Four Questions, "wave" them in authentic Hebrew Semaphore.

Calling All Runners!

A few years ago, when some friends asked me to run a half-marathon to raise money for diabetes research, my first inclination was "thanks, but no thanks". However, in short order, I found myself intrigued by the challenge. Now, several full marathons, a few halves, and even sprint-triathlons later, and after years of training with my diabetes team, I have found a whole new group of friends at B'nai Tikvah to run with. Some are training for their first half-marathon (Rutgers Half on April 18). My running buddies and I want to stay fit; we like to test our own limits; and we are hooked on our guilt-free chat-fest before Saturday services or Sunday commitments. We rely on each other when the weather is awful, and we motivate each other when the going gets tough. We are a small-but-growing subset of the incredible B'nai Tikvah community and we WELCOME like-minded members to join us! Please send me an email if you are interested!

On another note, we are continuing to raise funds to support our Tzevet (special unit of the Israel Defense Forces) in Israel. Any amount that you can contribute will be greatly appreciated. Please use the tear-off below to make your tax-deductible donation. Thank you!

ANOTHER VIEWPOINT

Once Upon A Time

History can be so boring unless it happens to be yours. Mine, as with most of us, is in segments. This piece starts in March of 1959. That's when Mili and I moved into the third section of the original development called Kendall Park. The Park, as some of us called it, was built by a fellow named Herb Kendall.

Just to give you some idea as to how much your dollars have shrunk, Kendall charged ten dollars a square foot for these homes, and still made a nice profit. I recently went looking for a new tool shed and couldn't find a decent shed for that price!

In March of 1959 there were still no stores in the area, and mail had to be addressed to Franklin Park as there was still no Kendall Park Post Office. The little synagogue called Beth Shalom was opened for the first service for the High Holidays in the fall of 1959 and holiday services prior to that were held in the Franklin Park fire house. There was no high school in South Brunswick. The original South Brunswick High School opened in the early 1960's, and my daughter Risa was in the first class to go from freshman through graduation.

Police protection was still primarily under New Jersey State Police, as South Brunswick only had an embryonic police department manned by part timers. My first bus trip to New York was a sketch. The bus stop was across the street from what had been a one room school house on Route 27. When the driver saw me with a valise at my side, he got off the bus, picked up the valise, stowed it on the shelf above my seat, and did so with a smile (this was not on Mars, it was South Brunswick 1959). For a born and bred New Yorker this was a revelation.

We had been living in the Riverdale section of the Bronx before moving to Kendall Park. In our innocence of such things, we had hired a mover who was not licensed to work in New Jersey. As a result we were caught in the middle of a dispute between movers and

A Prayer for the People of Haiti

by Rabbi Naomi Levy

We pray for Haiti.
 Our hearts are breaking, God.
 The human mind cannot grasp the enormity of the loss.
 The cries echo through the universe.
 Innocent blood is calling us
 To rise up from our heartbreak and act.
 We pray for Haiti.
 Help us, God,
 To understand that destruction can come in a moment
 But healing may take a lifetime.
 Teach us perseverance, teach us dedication.
 We pray for Haiti.
 God of the weak, God of the broken-hearted,
 God of the living, God of the dead,
 Send healing to Haiti.
 Send hope to the children who are lost and alone,
 Send strength and resilience to the wounded,
 And comfort to the grieving.
 Fill the leaders of Haiti with the wisdom to raise their country up.
 Fill relief workers with resolve.
 Bless the doctors and nurses with the power
 And the skill to save as many lives as possible.
 Open their eyes, steady their hands.
 We pray for Haiti.
 Bless us, God,
 Work through us.
 Remind us that every one of us is filled with the power to heal.
 Do not let the passage of time lead us to indifference.
 Open our hearts, open our hands.
 We pray for Haiti.
 Let all nations unite as one in a time of reconstruction and repair.
 Raise up the people of Haiti, God, out of helplessness and despair.
 Teach them to believe
 That cities shall be rebuilt on their ruins
 That the cries of the children will soon return to laughter.
 Be with them, God, watch over them.
 And gather the souls of the dead
 Whose homes and schools became their graves
 Into Your eternal shelter,
 Let them find peace in Your presence, God.
 We pray for Haiti.
 Amen.

At B'nai Tikvah You Can... Donate Blood...Or Not.

Sadly, dry roads and a sunny Sunday didn't make for an abundance of donors. After running up numbers like 67, 73 and 75 at our last three drives, this time only 42 folks turned out. We collected 34-pints of blood, including two double-donations on the ALYX machines.

Please be aware that blood supplies are continually sparse, and donors are desperately needed to save lives. Two facts: In the USA only 5% of eligible donors donate; In New Jersey the rate is half of that! We're in trouble, and we need old-time donors and part-time donors to renew their support; and we need a whole new set of young donors (17 and up) to start a lifetime commitment to this Mitzvah.

Thanks to our volunteer staff: Shirley Engel; Dave Friedheim; Gilda & Larry Gildenberg; Don Harvey; John Konopka; Sharon Samuels.

Please join us on July 18th, or contact;

Once Upon A Time

had to renegotiate the move, resulting in our arrival at our new home at twilight instead of early afternoon. Our youngest was still only nine months old, and we were depending on the delivery of a new refrigerator, timed to arrive just after we had planned to be at our new home. We had brought chilled milk and formula from the apartment but were getting panicky about the refrigerator.

The shopping center was still under construction and I had only a vague idea as to where to go for milk so late in the day, and the food from the apartment should be placed at once into the fridge. What to do? A knock on the door. There stood two young men from the appliance store. These two fellows had made the trip during the day to our house and were working over time hoping to find us at home to take delivery of the refrigerator because the invoice had a notation "baby in family".

You know, if you live long enough, you collect some very special memories of some very special people. I hope that life has treated these two men with the same care that they showed us on that day in 1959.

RELIGIOUS SCHOOL REPORTS Ann Kanarek, Director

Passover, or Pesach in Hebrew, is one of the three major pilgrimage festivals of ancient Israel. It is a commemoration of the Exodus from Egypt -- especially the night when God "passed over" the houses of the Israelites during the tenth plague -- and of the following day, when the Israelites had to leave Egypt hurriedly.

Passover can be considered a time of release followed by something positive. We can see this happening on three levels: seasonal, historical and human. On a seasonal plane, Passover symbolizes a release of the earth from the grip of winter. It starts the time of growth and Spring, when we can begin to enjoy the warm weather. On a historical level, Passover marks the release of the Children of Israel from the grip of Egypt. The ancient Israelites attained freedom from Egyptian bondage so they could enter into a Covenant at Mt. Sinai. It commemorates the birth of a Jewish nation. And, lastly, on a broad human plane, Passover symbolizes the hope for release of all people from physical and spiritual bondage.

The focus of Pesach celebration is the ritual meal, (the Seder), that takes place either in the home or in the community. Centered on this family or communal celebration of the Seder, Passover is one of the most beloved of all Jewish holidays.

My family and I wish you fun and enjoyable Seders and all the very best for a happy and kosher Passover holiday!!

BARTONS PASSOVER CANDY SALE

Many thanks to our Religious School and Synagogue families who helped promote our Passover Candy Fundraiser. Your dedicated efforts made this a very successful fundraiser and our students will greatly benefit from your generous support. If you aren't candy eaters and would still like to support us, a donation to the B'nai Tikvah Education Enrichment Fund in lieu of a purchase will be gratefully accepted.

NURSERY SCHOOL NEWS

PHYLLIS DENENBERG, DIRECTOR

Registration for camp 2010 and school 2010-2011 are ongoing!Save The Date!!

Wednesday, March 10th
from 6:30 PM to 8:00 PM
Family Art Night/Open House
Refreshments will be served

Silent Auction for furniture painted and decorated by each class:

Pre-k: train table

3's: children's size table and 2 chairs

2 1/2's: rocking chair

These items will be on view outside of the gym at the shul Purim carnival and on line

I would like to thank Jennifer Manson, Syndi Smoller and their carnival committee for all their behind the scenes work for our Purim carnival. The gym was decorated beautifully and the booths "manned" by many PAC volunteers. Kudos to all the families who contributed prizes to enhance the children's experience. We wish to thank all those who loaned us games for our booths.

We will host a spring food drive to benefit M.C.F.O.O.D.S. from March 1st through March 12th.

Bins will be placed outside each classroom. Please do not send in any perishable or glass items.

M.C.F.O.O.D.S. is Middlesex County's Emergency Food Distribution Network that serves over 70 local food pantries and soup kitchens.

Our school is now preparing for another holiday, Pesach. Soon everyone will be cleaning and sweeping just like their parents do at home. The children will be taught the FOUR Questions—the Ma Nishtanah. Why is this night different from all other nights? The answers to those questions will be learned in the story of Passover when the Jews were slaves in Egypt and eventually made their "Exodus" into the desert.

Each class will have their own seder. Projects are being made to enhance the seders. Parents are invited. Save the dates! All classes will have their seders on Friday, March 26th. Invitations will be sent home soon. Those students who usually do not attend school on Fridays are invited (along with their parents) to join the class for their Passover seder.

School will be closed for Pesach vacation from Monday March 29th through Tuesday, April 6th. Classes will resume on Wednesday, April 7th.

On behalf of all of us at the JCC Nursery School, we wish you a "Chag Kasher Visameach"!

Brings you a special event

Wednesday, March 10 7:45 P.M.

Dr Murray Spiegel & Rickey Stein

Co-authors of

“300 Ways to Ask the Four Questions: From Zulu to Abkhaz”

With Foreword by Theodore Bikel

Present:

300 Ways to Enhance your Seder!

Based on their new book

Meet the Authors — Passover Program & Book Signing
Find out how to create an unforgettable seder!

Dr Murray Spiegel and Rickey Stein present the fascinating and humorous account of their 25-year project to obtain translations of the Seder's Four Questions from hundreds of people around the globe: Jews from Uganda to Uzbekistan, aboriginals in Australia, Eskimo Bishops, Maori from New Zealand, and experts of ancient languages. Their illustrated multimedia presentation includes several of the more unusual translations, sampling images from 120 countries of origin. They cover cultural nuggets from other lands, the Seder's history and unexpectedly exotic languages spoken by Jews and their melodic chants. This remarkable project has the largest number of languages for any Jewish ritual.

Make your Seder more entertaining and educational! Murray and Rickey share fun parodies, quizzes and games, and explain how this amazing book connects youngsters to their family's genealogy, current events, and Jewish cultures throughout the world.

In the Foreword, Theodore Bikel raves with “great delight” for this book. See Hieroglyphics from the time of the Exodus, hear languages spoken by just 6 people, enjoy how Shakespeare (or Donald Duck . . . or a Klingon) would say the Four Questions, “wave” them in authentic Hebrew Semaphore.

Visit <http://WhyIsThisNight.com> for more information.

With a passion for Judaism, Passover and language, speech researcher Dr Murray Spiegel and pharmacist/language enthusiast Rickey Stein have reputations for innovative Seders; Murray's were the topic of a PBS show and both were featured in The New York Times. Murray has led over 30 Seders – no two alike. Enjoy their infectious enthusiasm and learn how to make your next Seder the most fun and interesting it's ever been.

Program is free, but please R.S.V.P. to Laurawaksman@gmail.com so we can plan accordingly

U.S.Y.

How February flew by so fast! Thank you to Marci Oslick for making Hamentashen with USY! Thank you to all of you who supported SA/TO by buying the mac & cheese groggers for megilla reading. And lastly, thank you Bnai Tikva-ers for coming to the wonderful carnival and supporting USY! We hope you all had as much fun as we did.

This is what USY has to look forward to:

March 6th: Saturday night, movie night, half and hour after shabbat is out! Please come for the mincha maarive services, and shortly after shabbat we will watch a movie. This movie night will be a similar style to the last USY movie night so please bring DVDs and USYers will bid on which movie they want to see. All Proceeds will go to SA/TO March 20th: Purim Prom in Scotch Plains. This is more than a regular old dance, get dressed up semi-formal attire and dance to celebrate Purim with all your USY friends.

April 23-25th: Spring convention USYers should be receiving applications in the mail. As well it will be sent out in a newsletter with the application attached via email.

It is not to late to sign up for USY summer programs! Please visit <http://www.usy.org/programs/escape>, for more information regarding all USY summer programs.

Lastly, elections are coming up in USY for next year! You can find a list of all the roles, responsibilities, and requirements at <http://www.bnaitikvah.org/usy.html>, just click on constitution. Anyone interested in running for chapter board should write a letter of intent stating what they want to run for and why.

Please feel free to contact Miri-Tal Atlas with any questions regarding elections. You may contact her at NSbrunswickusy@gmail.com.

World Wide Wrap (up)

when we wear Tefillin, we bind ourselves to the highest spiritual level and achieve a closeness to God that even the deepest meditation cannot accomplish. Rabbi Wolkoff taught, that when wearing Tifillin we become like the Mezuzah on our homes signifying that Holiness also lives within ourselves. We forge a spiritual bond with God. In the case of Tefillin, this bond is spiritual as well as physical. We bond God's love symbol to our bodies.

Tefillin are biblical in origin, and are commanded within the context of several laws outlining a Jew's relationship to God. "And you shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, with all your soul, and with all your might. Take to heart these instructions with which I charge you this day. Impress them upon your children. Recite them when you stay at home and when you are away, when you lie down and when you get up. Bind them as a sign on your hand and let them serve as a frontlet between your eyes" (Deuteronomy 6:5-8).

For many in the sanctuary that morning this was a unique experience. Wearing Tefillin helps us to connect physically with the more intellectual act of prayer and meditation, reminding us to live our lives in concert with our holy connection to God.

If you would like to explore the experience of Tifillin, you can give it a try on either Thursday mornings at 7:30 AM or Sundays at 9:00 AM. Rabbi Wolkoff and I would love to share this uplifting mitzvah with you.

With Gratitude and Appreciation,

Cantor Bruce Rockman

SUPERMARKET GIFT CARDS

ARE YOU READY FOR SOME MATZO?

I think that this is a legitimate question to ask. Passover/Pesach is early this year and all of us will prepare for it in some fashion. Whether going through all of the traditions, including changing all of dishes and other kitchenware and/or using the feather to find the miniscule traces of chametz or just stop eating bread for the 8 days or whatever...there is still some form of preparation that to be completed.

In case you need the date of the first Seder, here it is: Monday, March 29, 2010. It does give you some leeway from the time you receive this edition of the Hakol until the 29th. I am about to help make some of this preparation a bit easier. That is where the Gift Card (GC) committee comes in handy. The GC committee is available to provide each Congregation B'nai Tikvah (CBT) family with GCs from our participating vendors. If you need a larger amount than normal due to the holiday, just contact one of the committee members listed below ASAP. This may entail additional purchases from the vendors, but your requests will be handled within a reasonable amount of time if you contact us early enough. So, remember: no matter how much you wish to purchase, your orders for GCs from A&P, Acme, Pathmark, Shop Rite, Stop & Shop, Whole Foods as well as Lox, Stock & Deli, Jesse & David's and Home Depot will be ready for you. Your purchases may also be made by:

THIS MONTH'S TIP: Once again I am asking each CBT family to do some tzedakah for this holiday. I realize that many of our families have been experiencing difficult economic times just like the rest of the country. However, as Jews we have always been known for our acts of charity and kindness no matter how good or bad the economy has been. Therefore, I am once again asking each of us to donate whatever we can to our local food pantries. Even if it is only one box of matzo or a small monetary/gift card amount, it will be that much more the food pantry has in their inventory so they can help those less fortunate than we. Please contact your local food pantry or organization of choice to see what they need. I bet after such acts of kindness all of us will get a warm glow in their hearts

So, from our home to yours I hope your Passover/Pesach holiday is a happy and safe one.

Linda Feinstein
